Sunday 8 July 2018

Pentecost 7

Welcome to our congregation here at Morialta.

Please stay and join us in the hall for a cup of tea/coffee and fellowship.

We acknowledge the Kurna people, the first inhabitants of this place.
We honour them for their custodianship of the land on which we gather today.

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. (1 Corth 11:23-26)

Thank You

Cynthia would like to thank all her friends at Morialta for their outpouring of love and prayer which acted as a shield around her the past few weeks as she faced surgery in her mouth to remove a cancerous tumour. Everything has gone well so far - and she wishes she had been able to reply to all the dozens of texts and phone calls received. She says that this experience has just confirmed for her that love is indeed infinite.
