Maundy Thursday:

a service of fellowship
and reflections

Maundy Thursday service

14 April, at the Tower Hotel (exclusive room) from 6:45pm.

We will meet over a meal and drinks that you purchase off the menu (vegetarian options inc.) and during the evening there will be readings/reflections, prayers and sharing in a Last Supper experience. Flyers are in the foyer, please take one.

Easter Services

14 April, Maundy Thursday 6:45pm
@ the Tower Hotel - A meal
(purchase own) with liturgy and Last Supper reflections.

15 April, Good Friday 9am @ the Church: a service of reflection and sorrow.

17 April, Easter Sunday 9:30am @ the Church: Celebration Sunday including Holy Communion.

Jars for Flowers on Mothers Day

Wanted, small jars suitable for small flower arrangements for Mothers Day.

We ask that they are washed and the labels taken off. Please place the jars in the labelled box in the foyer.

FELLOWSHIP

Our next meeting is on Thursday,
21 April at 10.00am.

You are invited to join us for Ruth Pitt's very interesting talk and photographic presentation of Eyre Peninsula.
You are very welcome to stay for a BYO lunch.

Everyone is welcome.

The background of the text is a circular logo for the Kooragang Island Aboriginal Cultural Centre. It features a central white circle with a blue and green design, surrounded by concentric circles of dots in various colors (blue, green, yellow, red) and patterns, creating a vibrant, traditional Aboriginal art style.

We acknowledge the Kurna people,
the first inhabitants of this place.
We honour them for their custodianship of the land on which we gather today.
