Pentecost 25

Every year Elkanah and his family traveled to the tabernacle in Shiloh to offer sacrifices to Yahweh. Hannah was especially depressed during this time of year. While many Hebrews were happily bringing thanksgiving offerings to the tabernacle, Hannah felt as if God had forsaken her. She sobbed in solitude and wouldn't eat. One afternoon she went into the tabernacle and knelt in prayer. "Please God," she begged, "if you will remember me and grant me a male child, I will dedicate him to you as a Nazirite for life."
