Pentecost 24

Your love, O God, is an active love:
engaged, involved, immersed.

Your love, O God,
is seen in what you do, not just in what you say:

in the blessing of children,
in the meals with outcasts,
in the touching of the untouchable,
in your presence,
and your self-giving,
in your opening of the way to life
to all who will come;

And your love, O God,
is expressed through people like us:
as we share our wealth in simplicity
and generosity;

as we share wholeness in care and healing
of the sick and broken;
as we share hospitality by being truly present to the lonely, the imprisoned and the marginalised;
as we share peace in kindness, listening and acceptance
with those who challenge us, confront us and threaten us.

As you have loved us in incarnate action, O God, may we learn to be little incarnations through whom your love is expressed and experienced in action. Amen.

For thousands of years the traditional custodians have walked in this land, on their own country.

Their relationship with the land is at the centre of their lives. We acknowledge the Kurna People and their stewardship of this land throughout the ages.

The National Railway Museum shop is in need of volunteers on Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays.

In the shop, we have a great team of volunteers who regularly staff most days but we are in need of people who can help us out on Wednesdays and weekends.

Hours are between 9:30am and 4:45pm, and a lunch break is accommodated. There are always at least two people rostered in the shop each day.

There are some great benefits to volunteering with us. You'll be the first to see which new books and other stock are available, it's an excellent opportunity to see our happy visitors, and you'll be part of our volunteering community. It's quite a social affair.

If you are able to help us out, please contact Gabby via email: curatorcollection@nrm.org.au or phone the Museum: 08 8341 1690.

You will need a current National Police Check and Working With Children Check, both of which can be arranged at no cost via the Museum, as part of your induction. Thank you.
