

Information about this form

What is a nationally coordinated criminal history check?

A nationally coordinated criminal history check is conducted with your informed consent to determine your suitability for a position of trust, specified field of endeavour or as required by legislation. A nationally coordinated criminal history check contains your personal information, and police information that is disclosable about you, according to the purpose of your check.

Who completes this form?

1. Applicant

You are required to provide your personal details and informed consent to complete this form. If you are less than 18 years of age, this form must be completed by your parent or legal guardian. You must also provide your identity documents, as detailed below in ‘What ID Documents are required?’.

Your documents must be shown to a delegated representative of The Uniting Church in Australia Property Trust (SA), i.e. Minister, member of Church Council or Uniting Church SA (UCSA) employee.

You are completing this form to obtain a nationally coordinated criminal history check as a part of UCSA Screening and Authority process.

2. Person responsible for verifying identity

(must be a Minister, a member of Church Council or a UCSA employee)

Four documents must be presented to you for verification. You must ensure you are satisfied that the applicant’s personal details on this form and the identity documents are correct. Complete Section D to confirm the documents presented meet this criteria.

What ID Documents are required?

Minimum identity requirements

You must provide four documents with your completed form to confirm your identity:

- one commencement document to confirm your birth in Australia or arrival in Australia,
- one primary document and
- two secondary documents to show the use of your identity in the community.

The verifier (i.e. Minister, member of Church Council or Uniting Church SA (UCSA) employee) will use these documents to verify your identity against the personal information you have provided on this form. The personal information contained in the identity documents you provide will be used to conduct a nationally coordinated criminal history check, as you consent to in Section C.

The documentation you provide must include evidence of your full name and date of birth and a photograph of you. The commencement document and/or primary documents provided must include a photo of you. If this is not possible you must submit a passport-style photograph certified by a person listed in Schedule 2 of the Statutory Declarations Regulations 1993 \(Cth\).

The full list of identification documents that can be accepted are listed in Section D.

Change of name

If you provide any identifying documents using a former name, you must provide evidence of your name change. This means providing a change of name certificate issued by the Australian Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages or an Australian marriage certificate issued by a state or territory, in addition to your four identity documents. Church or celebrant-issued certificates are not accepted.

Special provisions for proof of identity

The ACIC recognises that in exceptional circumstances you may not be able to meet the minimum proof of identity requirements. Please contact UC SA Screening Services Unit (on behalf of The Uniting Church in Australia Property Trust (S.A)) who will assess your ability to meet the requirements and determine the most suitable method to confirm your identity.

Privacy notice

How will my information be used?

The ACIC and Australian police agencies

The ACIC and Australian police agencies use the information on this form and the applicant’s identity documentation:

- to disclose police information relating to you, to The Uniting Church in Australia Property Trust (S.A.)
- to update records held about you
- for law enforcement, including purposes set out in the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Cth)

Accredited body

The Uniting Church in Australia Property Trust (S.A.) is an accredited body and uses the personal information collected in this form to request a nationally coordinated criminal history check and to assure itself of your identity.

The Uniting Church in Australia Property Trust (S.A.) may have a legislative basis for the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information and police information to a third party. If applicable, third parties are listed at C1. The ACIC recommends you seek more information about relevant legislation from The Uniting Church in Australia Property Trust (S.A.)

The Uniting Church in Australia Property Trust (S.A.) must advise you if your personal information or police information will be transferred or supplied to a location outside Australia, known as the permitted offshore transfer arrangement.

You can contact The Uniting Church in Australia Property Trust (S.A.) for more information on how they handle your personal information using the contact details at the end of this section.
