We acknowledge that we are on the land of the Kurna people.

We pay respect to their tribal elders, honour their continuing culture, and pray that in the power of your Spirit we might work together for reconciliation and justice in this nation.

Gateways reading and discussion group:

On Friday 26 May we will complete our discussion of Part 3 of Brian McLaren's book Do I Stay Christian?: A Guide for the Doubters, the Disappointed, and the Disillusioned. We will focus on Chapters 27 and 28 and the Afterword; please note the sections that were especially meaningful or interesting for you so we can compare notes and move the discussion on from there.

Afternoon tea and catch-up at 4:00, discussion from 4:30, finishing at 6:00. All very welcome!

Another Concert at MUC

The CB&FR team are proud to announce that Adelaide's newest flute quartet - Coruscalia Collective (Mandy Hutchinson and colleagues) – will play for us in the church on Sunday afternoon 2nd July. The quartet has recently played to full houses at the Adelaide Fringe and they will be playing music composed by local South Australians composers.

Please put the date in your diary and tell your family and friends about this great opportunity to hear music written by South Australians and played by South Australians.

Tickets will be available from June 1st.

Visiting members in Supported Accommodation

Now that COVID is less pervasive it might be the time to think about visiting members of the congregation who aren't as mobile as some.

While many of us are fortunate to remain in our homes, sometimes circumstances require something different.

If you would like to share some time with somebody who is not in supported accommodation, please feel encouraged to do so. Of course, if you intend to visit, it may be a good idea to ring beforehand to make sure it is convenient.
