Friendship Group

Our next gathering will meet on 16th July at 11.30 for lunch at 12.00 noon at Kafé Schultze. If you have not already advised your intention to come or you would like to join us at Lutheran Homes, Glynde please contact Joan Wagner on 8337 4605 today, Sunday 12th for seating/catering.

Community Day will not be held on 8th and 15th July which is during the school holidays.

The next Community Day is 22nd July, and the next Wednesday Worship is on 12th August. The theme will be Homelessness.

Up and coming events:

Meditation:

If you are new to meditation and curious to try, have tried but not felt you “succeeded”, or have experience but find it is easier when guided, Steve Begg (who has been meditating for 20 years and has formal training in guiding it) will lead a session at the church at 11.00am on Wednesday 22nd July, lasting about 45 minutes.

Coffin Club:

6 sessions, from fears about death to the afterlife, from music at your funeral to how to talk about death with children. What happens to your online presence, your passwords? It is not at all morbid, just a realistic, even optimistic plan for what is surely coming. Have your say now, while you can. A light-hearted look at living, dying and what comes next. Held once a month on Wednesday mornings as part of Community Day – stay for lunch and games if you are free. Cost $30 for a resource book. For more info see the Vision.

Moderator Elect

During Synod 2026, Professor Ian Olver was elected to be the next Moderator of the Uniting Church in SA, commencing in 2028. Congratulations, Ian!

We caught up with him briefly on the second day of Synod to hear what excites him about his new role.
