News from the 17th Assembly

A South Australian joyfully elected as next UCA President-elect: Our warmest congratulations go to Rev Dr Paul Dongwon Goh, known to many of us - he has been elected as the next President-elect of the Uniting Church in Australia, and will serve as President from 2027-2030, the first Korean to serve in this role. Paul is currently Justice & CALD Multicultural and Cross-Cultural Officer in the Mission Resourcing team of the Synod of South Australia.

FROM SYNOD

This week we pray:

- For President of the Uniting Church, Rev Charissa Suli, as she begins her term
 - For all members of the Assembly as they continue to lean into God's spirit and guidance
 - For the United Aboriginal and Islander Christian Congress may they continue to guide us with wisdom and understanding as we mark the 30th Anniversary of the Covenant with the Uniting Church in Australia.

Thank You!

To friends all over, thanks for the wonderful feeling of God's love and care that comes through all of you. You might not be aware of this, but it is a very real blessing!!
Much love, Cynthia xx
