AGM of the Congregation

Our Annual General Meeting will be 3rd May, 15 minutes after the service.

A separate streaming link for the AGM will be sent out next week.

Community Lunch after AGM

Please register your attendance for the community lunch for after the AGM on the sign-up sheet in the foyer. Please do this by today, Sunday, 26 April.

Our next Wednesday Worship is this coming Wednesday 29th April at 2pm, part of our Community Day. Come for craft or games in the morning, a simple lunch, or just for worship at 2 followed by afternoon tea. We will be focussing on favourite hymns. If you know someone who can no longer make Sunday morning, they (and you) are most welcome. Future dates are May 20, June 10, and July 8. Need transport? Let the office know.

Refresh of foyer cupboard display

Please collect on Sunday May 3 any crosses or other items you have contributed to the cupboard display. The next display will be for History Month and beyond, featuring our historical silver items. If you have any similar items, you would be prepared to loan, please bring them on the same day.

Biggest Morning Tea

We decided at Church Council to support the Biggest Morning Tea, as part of our Community Day on 13th May. Money raised with support the Cancer Council. We are looking for items for a silent auction – something priceless you can part with – or a skill you can share – all to aid those in need. Let Anne B know if you can contribute. We will also host the Biggest Afternoon Tea the same day! Bring your friends!

All queries to Anne B 0416 295 607.

Concert – Leigh Newton and Maarten Ryder

Sunday 17th May at 2.00pm in Morialta Uniting Church.

Leigh is a well-known performer across Australia with his singing, songwriting, piano and guitar. Remember his 'Christmas in the Scrub' from an album retelling the Christmas story in Australian terms? Maarten is a multi-instrumentalist specialising in double-bass and multiple woodwinds. He and Leigh have been mates since their days in 'Three Corner Jack.'

Tickets $25 (children free) includes afternoon tea.
